

200 miles out in the Gobi Desert. Where the temperature gets down below -30 degrees, exposure becomes life-threatening in minutes. Nomads and local villagers can get free medical treatment, with the support of donations. Many people have been won to the Lord out of this hospital. The Lord is working miracles here in Mongolia.